WORLD PHENOMENA

[WP1] Students create their own CV, including their studies, work experiences, skills, and attitudes

[WP2] Company decides to offer a new internship for students who want to gain experience

[WP3] During the selection process, the company conducts an interview with the student through an oral exam

[WP4] Students selected for a particular internship begin working on the related projects

[WP5] Users of the platform (students and companies) encounter issues with the internship projects they are working on

WORLD CONTROLLED SHARED PHENOMENA

[SP1] Companies publish new internship advices

[SP2] Students search for all the available internships on the platform

[SP3] Students search for all the companies registered on the platform

[SP4] Students search for specific internships using the search bar

[SP5] Students apply for an internship

[SP6] Companies accept the applications of some students for their internships

[SP7] Companies offer internship opportunities to specific students

[SP8] Students accept the internship application offer

[SP9] Companies configure the selection process for their internships

[SP10] Students answer both closed and open-ended questions during the interview

[SP11] Companies enter the evaluations of the students' oral exam answers

[SP12] Users (students and companies) provide feedback and suggestions about the interships

[SP13] Users (students and companies) monitor the status of ongoing internships, providing complaints, problems and information about them

MACHINE CONTROLLED SHARED PHENOMENA

[SP14] The systems notifies students when an internship that might interest them become available

[SP15] The system notifies companies about the availabilty of interesting studens regarding their interships

[SP16] The system notifies students if the companies accept their application for the internships

[SP17] The system notifies companies if the students accept their application proposal for the internships

[SP18] The system notifies students about the interview dates

[SP19] The system does some statistical analysis on information (questionanaires and feedback) provided by users (companies and students) in order to improve the mechanism of recommendation

[SP20] The system collects the complaints provided by the users (students and companies) about ongoing internships